

University of Pécs, Hungary

The University of Pécs is one of the largest and oldest higher institutions in Hungary.

There are 22,000 students studying at the University of Pecs coming from over 110 countries. It offers many fields of study at the Bachelors and Master's level, including, but not limited to the following:

Degrees offered:

Business Administration and Management, Dietetics, Nursing, Physiotherapy, Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Geography, Mathematics, Physics, Earth Sciences, Physical Training, International Relations, Psychology, Social Work, Civil Engineering, Architecture, Biotechnology, Electrical Engineering, Architectural Engineering, Dentistry, Veterinary medicine, General Medicine, Pharmacy, Music Performance, Orchestral and Choral Conductor, Ceramic Design, and other fields.

Annual tuition ranges from 2,900 Euros (fields in the humanities) 8,800 Euros (medical programs). Tuition fees depend on the field of study.

Application requirements:

- An online application, which requires a fee of around 200 Euros.
- IELTS for students from non-English speaking high schools. A minimum score of 6.5 is required. Please note the IELTS score is valid for two years from the time of exam.
- Medical programs require a written exam and an oral interview. No specific courses are required, however, for students to be able to pass the entrance exams, they must have a background in Biology and Chemistry. The fee for the entrance exams is currently 250 Euros.
- For some other fields, an interview is required.
- Students following a school grading system out of 20, students should have at least a 17 average. A higher score is preferable for medical programs.
- Students following a school grading system out of 10, students should have at least a 7. A higher score is preferable for medical programs.
- Students following the UK iGCSE and A level educational system should have at least 6 iGCSE's grade C (4 out of 9) in all subjects, at least grade C in AS levels, and good predications for A levels. Higher scores are preferable for medical programs.
- School transcripts for the last three years are required and officially translated into English.
- Valid passport

Deadline for most applications is June 30, 2025

For assistance with the application, contact anna@applimates.com or 22669757.